

tion to go ahead despite the whitewash report of the grand jury, and the cold shoulder given the Federation by Judge Burke.

A petition for a special grand jury and a special prosecutor will be made by the Federation to some circuit or superior court judge other than Burke.

The report of the grand jury is the greatest farce that Chicago ever knew.

It heard a certain amount of evidence. One of the things the people do not yet know is that the first person to give the grand jury any evidence at all was Bennie Hyman, the gambler.

Yet in its report today the grand jury did not even take notice of the facts that were presented to it; far less touch upon the secret testimony of Hyman.

It did not mention the assistant state's attorney whom Carl Waldron of the Committee of Fifteen swore came to him and asked him to "lay off" any prosecution of Dago Frank Lewis and Al Harris, the South Side dive-keepers. It did not mention the $10,000 protection money which Waldron swore he knew had been paid by a certain resort keeper. It did nothing but whitewash.

The assistant state's attorney who asked Attorney Carl Waldron to lay off the prosecution of Al Harris, white slaver, was Claude Smith.

Client—So the jury gave me $5,000? That's great—eh?

Lawyer—Yes, my boy. You don't know how badly I needed it.

MERELY POLITICS

Washington, Oct. 1.—Bill Flinn said to Clapp committee today that Senator Penrose lied if he said Flinn offered a million for a Penna. senatorship.

Hooker, Bull Moose treasurer, said campaign for Roosevelt nomination cost $141,657. Big givers were Perkins, Munsey and Dan Hanna.

Flinn said his political expenses this year were $144,308.29.

Testimony showed Bull Moosers spent $13,500 in Illinois.

Dan Hanna gave $25,000, and George Perkins, $22,500 to Roosevelt campaign.

Hooker said Crane, of Chicago, told him he had given $70,000 to Wilson campaign, and $70,000 to LaFollette.

Committee tried to hook Roosevelt up to Harriman. Letters between them were read, but didn't show that Harriman got either promises or favors from Teddy.

Most of the efforts are to get at Roosevelt.

To Help Her Out

Julia—Papa, I wish you'd lock up your money and pretend to fail. It needn't last more than a week or two, and there are so many failures now no one will think anything of it."

Father—Good gracious, Julia! What! Wha—

Julia—Oh, it's all right. You see, I'm engaged to nine young men, and I've got to get rid of at least eight of them somehow.
